

Homework #5

The journal MISQ is one of the top IS journals (many say it is the #1 journal).

To help new researchers, the journal has created a series of curations.

Here is the link: <https://www.misqresearchcurations.org/mis-quarterly-research-curations>

The purpose of MISQ Research Curations is to identify topics of significant interest to the IS field and other disciplines, identify MISQ articles that make significant contributions to these topics, and provide researchers with easy access to a bundle of MISQ articles on which to further build or extend research. Each curation will include a short summary of the topic and the bundle of MISQ articles related to the topic.

Below is a list of the curations.

3. At the bottom of each curation is a list of related articles, obtain 2 articles for each of the three areas you have chosen (6 total). READ THE ABSTRACTS of each of these 6 articles.
4. Pick 1 article of the six and complete the Note-Taking Template for Journal Article (see attached) You will need to read more of this one article.
5. Write a 2-3 sentence summary for the other 5 ABSTRACTS.
